

THE HONORABLE BENJAMIN H. SETTLE

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

JANNICE PRESTON,

Plaintiff,

v.

ATLAS CASTINGS & TECHNOLOGY, et al,

Defendants.

NO. 3:08-cv-05033-BHS

DECLARATION OF GUY J. STERNAL
IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANTS'
MOTIONS IN LIMINE

NOTED ON MOTION CALENDAR:
March 20, 2009

I, GUY J. STERNAL, declare under penalty of perjury and in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington and the United States that I am an attorney representing Defendant Atlas in this matter, am over the age of eighteen years, and I have personal knowledge of the following matters:

1. On June 16, 2008, I received Plaintiff's Initial Disclosures, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. On pages 3 and 4, Plaintiff summarizes her damages as follows: "Plaintiff's claim for damages includes, but is not limited to emotional distress. The computation of Plaintiff's damages will be supplemented, as discovery is ongoing." To date, Defendants have received no supplementation of Plaintiff's Initial Disclosures.

2. On August 21, 2008, I received Plaintiff's Responses to Defendants' First

1 Interrogatories and Defendants' Requests for Production. Copies of Ms. Preston's responses to
2 the relevant interrogatories (Interrogatories No. 3, 11, 20, 23) and requests for production
3 (Requests No. 24) are attached hereto as Exhibit B. Because Plaintiff had not provided a
4 categorical calculation of her claimed damages as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
5 26(a), Defendants propounded an interrogatory asking Ms. Preston to describe her injuries and 6 damages with particularity (Interrogatory No. 3, page 6). Ms. Preston responded that she had
7 suffered anxiety, stress, and intimidation but did not offer any detail as to her claimed damages
8 or injuries. Because Plaintiff had not provided any documents or evidentiary material upon
9 which her claim for damages is based, as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a),
10 Defendants propounded a request for production asking Ms. Preston to provide documents
11 relating to her injuries and damages (Request No. 24, page 12). Ms. Preston responded that she 12 had conducted an investigation and uncovered no responsive documents. To date, Ms. Preston
13 has not supplemented her discovery responses.

14 3. On February 5, 2009, Plaintiff deposed L. Benjamin King, the Human Resources
15 Director for Atlas Casting and Technology. Attached hereto as Exhibit C are relevant excerpts
16 of Mr. King's deposition transcript.

17 4. Although Ms. Preston does not assert racial discrimination claims in this matter,
18 Plaintiff's counsel elicited testimony from Mr. King regarding race at several points during his 19 deposition. From Plaintiff's counsel's conduct during Mr. King's deposition, it appears that 20 Plaintiff's counsel will attempt to present evidence of race and color discrimination even though
21 such claims were not included in Ms. Preston's complaint.

22 5. Attached hereto as Exhibit D is a copy of a memorandum written by Duane 23 Britschgi memorializing a conversation between Mr. Britschgi and Mr. King regarding Mr.
24 King's violation of employment policies.

25 6. Attached hereto as Exhibit E is a copy of an Officer's Incident Report detailing

1 Ms. Preston's contention that items were stolen from her unlocked car while it was parked
2 outside of Defendants' secure employee parking lot.

3 7. Attached hereto as Exhibit F is a copy of a letter written by Mr. King to Emily
4 Welton in response to Ms. Welton's allegation of sexual harassment by Mr. King.

5 8. Attached hereto as Exhibit G is a copy of a memorandum written by Duane
6 Britschgi regarding Mr. King's violation of employment policies that are not implicated by Ms.
7 Preston's claims.

8 9. On February 6, 2009, Defendants deposed Plaintiff Jannice Rhodes-Preston.
9 Attached hereto as Exhibit H are relevant portions of Ms. Preston's deposition transcript.

10 10. In her deposition, Defendants were surprised to hear Ms. Preston testify as to 11 several factual allegations that were not part of her EEOC Charge of Discrimination, are not 12 mentioned in her complaint, and were not provided in her discovery responses. For example, at 13 page 61 of her deposition, Ms. Preston testified as to just one offensive comment from her co-
14 workers. This comment was not identified in Ms. Preston's discovery responses, and Defendants
15 learned of this allegation for the first time during Ms. Preston's deposition. Ms. Preston also 16 testified to several uses of profane language that did not concern her and were not directed at her.
17 For example, at pages 53 and 55 of her deposition, Ms. Preston testified that her co-workers
18 directed the use of profanity towards each other, not Ms. Preston.

19 11. Because Ms. Preston did not provide a calculation of her damages in her initial 20 disclosures and did not describe her damages with particularity in response to specific discovery
21 requests, Defendants questioned Ms. Preston about her damages in her deposition. At pages 81-
22 82 of her deposition, Ms. Preston clarified that she is claiming lost wages from the day of her
23 voluntary termination of employment until Valentine's Day of 2008. Ms. Preston was unable to 24 provide a calculation of such damages. Defendants also inquired as to Ms. Preston's claimed
25 damages for pain and suffering, mental anguish, and emotional distress. At pages 76-77 of her

1 deposition, Ms. Preston testified that her damages were limited to stress and that she had not
 2 sought treatment for such stress. Since the date of Ms. Preston's deposition, Defendants have
 3 received no clarification or supplementation from Ms. Preston regarding her claimed damages.

4 12. Attached hereto as Exhibit I is a copy of Ms. Preston's EEOC Charge of 5 Discrimination and Notice of Charge of Discrimination.

6 13. While Ms. Preston's EEOC Charge of Discrimination contains allegations
 7 regarding race discrimination, Ms. Preston has not brought claims for race discrimination in this
 8 matter. See Dkt. 1. Nevertheless, at her deposition, Ms. Preston made repeated references to 9 alleged racial discrimination. For example, at pages 73 and 125 of her deposition, Ms. Preston
 10 testified that Mr. King made a statement about there being "a lot of racists" at Atlas. At pages
 11 84-85 of her deposition, Ms. Preston testified that Mr. King said that Atlas Castings &
 12 Technology was a "lily white organization" and that Duane Britschgi made racist comments.
 13 At page 109 of her deposition, Ms. Preston testified that Duane Britschgi wrote a letter to Mr.
 14 King stating that Atlas was hiring too many African Americans. At page 39 of her deposition,
 15 Ms. Preston testified that she felt discriminated against "racial-wise."

16 14. On February 5, 2009, Plaintiff deposed Duane Britschgi, the president of 17 Defendant Atlas Castings & Technology. Copies of relevant portions of Mr. Britschgi's
 18 deposition transcript are attached hereto as Exhibit J.

19 15. Attached hereto as Exhibit K is a copy of a note George Smith gave Plaintiff. Mr.
 20 Smith was terminated for his behavior with respect to the note.

21 16. Attached hereto as Exhibit L is a copy of a memorandum written by Duane
 22 Britschgi regarding Celine Reeves and summarizing sexual discrimination claims of female
 23 employees who worked outside of Ms. Preston's department performing different jobs.

24 17. Attached hereto as Exhibit M is a copy of email correspondence between L.
 25 Benjamin King and Emily Welton.
